IN MEMORIAM

Peacefully, quietly, gently he died,
As the voice of a friend he faintly heard,
Reading to him from God's own holy Word,
A book he loved in life, also in death.

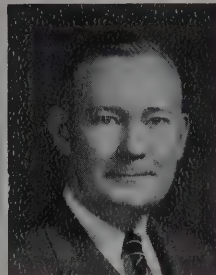

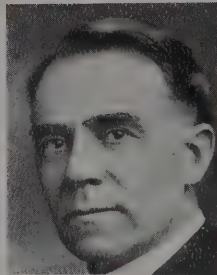

He was always ready with his smile,
Ready to help us in our task,
Always ready to give what we might ask,
And to guide us kindly along life's way.

As in life, so in death—
He had nothing to fear.
The death of the righteous brings Christ more near,
And leads into everlasting rest.

If I were to die this day,
Seeing "across the bar" Christ's face,
As he did, and in heav'n for me a place,
I then would not be afraid to die.

JOE MCGREGOR.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This is the last message to my last graduating class. There is a tinge of sadness in the thought of our temporary separation, and a sigh of relief from the burdens and responsibilities which I have carried in your training. May this brief message be freighted with love and sympathy, as well as filled with encouragement and wisdom to point you to higher heights and deeper joys in the service of God.

You are the sixteenth class that has graduated under my administration at David Lipscomb College. You live in an age which offers you more varied opportunities for success than other classes. At the same time there are greater problems and temptations than other classes have had to meet. In this age of conflicting opinions, when multiplied and modified systems of education and religion are clamoring for a hearing, when learned sophistry is seeking to undermine your faith in the Bible as the word of God, you need greater courage, deeper convictions, saner wisdom, and stronger character to succeed in life.

May I wish for you a better preparation for your mission in life. This is the time when you will need a broad culture and harmonious development of all of the capabilities of your being. You need a clear vision in order to fill your mission full. You need to view life on earth as a preparatory school for eternal life in heaven. The word of God only can guide you and help you to attain the true goal. You need to know that all attempts to fill the demand of the human soul by earth's gifts and offerings must, by the necessity of the case, end in disappointment, since the yearning of man's soul belongs to eternity. May you learn that God's idea of a full-orbed man is given in the person and life of Jesus, and that whoever is most like Jesus is greatest in the sight of the Lord. May each of you continue your development in mind, spirit, and soul until you shall have reached perfection in Christ Jesus.

PRESIDENT H. LEO BOLES.

1 9 3 2

HOWARD A. WHITE.....Florence, Ala.

President Senior Class, '32; Vice President Alabama Club; Glee Club; Workers' Club; Dramatic Club; Babbler Staff; Assistant Business Manager of Backlog; Student Cabinet; Tennis Club; Founder's Day Orator; Preachers' Club; Estrellita.

Howard is one of the most outstanding students at D. L. C. As President of the Senior Class, he cannot be excelled, having taken the class through this year with great success. He is dependable with a capital "D," generous, fun-loving, and mixes pleasure with work, full of service and understanding. He carries responsibility seriously, and can be relied on to do his share in any enterprise. He has fine, positive qualities, and the love and confidence of his many friends. He is conscientious and accurate, and raises the level of living in any group of which he is a part.

Here's a man not afraid to say his say,
Though a whole town be against him.

ROBERT PEYTON ALSIP

Gladeville, Tenn.

Vice President Senior Class, '32; Captain Basketball Team, '32; Vice President Tennessee Club, '32; Dramatic Club; Glee Club; Workers' Club; Babbler Staff; Backlog Staff; Estrellita.

A capable, clear-headed, and ambitious fellow, with such a well-balanced personality. Peyton is a friend to every one, and shows kindness and courtesy to every age and rank in life. He has a happy, sunny nature, is full of "wise cracks," and makes merry even on the dreariest day. He is a real "ladies' man." Yeah, he's very popular, and also very athletical. Look for him in the feature section.

"A smile for all, a welcome glad;
A jovial, coaxing way he had."

MARTHA STARNES

Rives, Tenn.

Winner of Boles Scholarship, '31; Tennessee Club; Secretary of Class, '32; Vice President Home Ec Club; Tennis Club; French Club; Art Club; Estrellita Society.

A bright member of our class is Martha, who always gets A's in her studies. She is ambitious, and has a wonderful personality and a gentle, loving disposition. She is so unassuming that few people realize until they work with her what a determination she has and how direct in her attack against any problem she faces. She has the grace of courtesy and traits of character which bind others to her because of genuine worth, and not through a surface charm alone.

"Gentle of speech, beneficent of mind."

AUSTIN TANT

Memphis, Tenn.

President Junior Class, '31; Estrellita Society; Workers' Club; Preachers' Club; Tennessee Club; Treasurer Senior Class.

Tant is a person who likes to see in what ways he can put his knowledge acquired at college to use. He has the happy faculty of doing his share in any undertaking, and more if called on. He has a happy, genial disposition.

"Young fellows will be young fellows."

BLANCHE TAYLOR

Columbia, Tenn.

Estrellita Society; Schubert Choral Club; Tennessee Club; Home Ec Club.

A friendly, courageous soul, and loyal to her school. "Bee" has a character we like to see, and she has a host of friends here in D. L. C. She has real talent for chaperoning.

"She's a good worker, never a shirker;
A friend true blue, loyal through and through."

SENIORS

Indianapolis, Ind.

Estrellita Society; Dramatic Club; Cosmopolitan Club; Tennis Club; Schubert Choral Club; Manager College Girls' Basketball Team; Home Ec Club; Organization Manager Backlog; Social Editor of Babbler; Member Octette.

"Bobbie" is one of the most attractive and charming students of David Lipscomb College. Hair waved to perfection (by nature), how could she help being popular and admired? It is very amusing to see the twinkle of mischief and fun which often appears in her eyes and startles those about her. She possesses many qualities which gain the admiration of all who know her. With her charming smile she scatters sunshine and happiness along her pathway. Her attractiveness and striking personality won for her many friends. She has won a coveted place in the Feature Section.

"Here is a girl with a heart and smile
That makes the bubble of life worth while."

CHARLES KLINGMAN PRENTICE
Columbia, Tenn.

Tennessee Club; Tawassa Society; Tennis Club.

Prentice is talented in music, and has a wonderful voice. If he will continue in this work, we predict for him a great future. He is very fond of football, teasing girls, and sleeping in classes.

"I have always thought the actions of men the best interpreters of their thought."

CHARLOTTE LUCILLE JERNIGHAN
Tupelo, Miss.

Estrellita Society; Mississippi Club; Home Ec Club; Schubert Choral Club; French Club; Workers' Club; Tennis Club; Estrellita Cheer Leader.

"Dot" enjoys a good time and is a very happy being, always finding fun in every situation. Her merry laugh will be missed greatly by those who come back to Lipscomb next year.

"Why take life so seriously?
You'll never get out of it alive."

EARL E. SMITH
Murray, Ky.

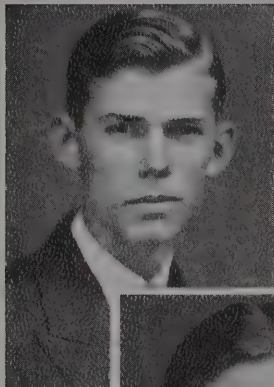

Estrellita Society; Preachers' Club; Glee Club; Kentucky Club.

A quiet but determined student, who is always ready to do his part willingly. Earl is one who can be relied upon to say just the right thing at the right time, and he carries with him the ideals of the Institution, wherever he may be.

"By diligence he wins his way."

SENIORS

HUGH ALLEN

Horse Cave, Ky.

Estrellita Society; Glee Club, '31, '32; Workers' Club; Member College Quartet, '31, '32; Editor of Backlog; Kentucky Club; Schubert Choral Club; Tennis Club.

As Editor of our Backlog, his work stands for itself. There is no need of words to express to you what a diligent worker Hugh is. He is a good all-round student, and while here at David Lipscomb has made many friends. He has a wonderful musical talent, and we are expecting great things from him in the future.

"Let us be seen by our deeds."

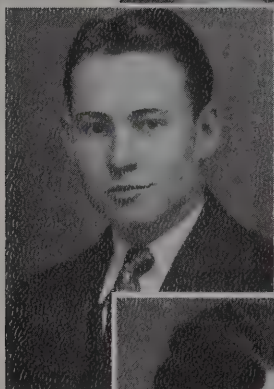

NELL GRANDSTAFF

Lebanon, Tenn.

Estrellita Society; Dramatic Club; Tennessee Club; Schubert Choral Club; Basketball Team, '31, '32; Octette; Home Ec Club; Co-Editor Backlog, '32; Workers' Club; Assistant Coach College Girls' Basketball Team.

Wherever she is things just naturally "hum." Her talents are many—born singing and playing. We have also witnessed her dramatic ability. Her cheerful "Here you are"! on the ball court has helped win many a ball game. A stanch, loyal, Christian character, who stands firmly for the right. Positive and sure in her convictions. The world would be better if there were more like her.

"And Nature made her what she is, and never made another."

LEE J. WATKINS, JR.

Madison, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Business Manager Backlog; Tennessee Club; Dramatic Club; French Club; Day Student.

As a Business Manager of the 1932 Backlog, Lee J. has the golden touch. He can be trusted and relied upon, and has ability along the dramatic lines, as well as other lines. Clever, original, and endowed with business ability, he has a promising future.

"Life is one good joke after another."

LOUISE JONES

Humboldt, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Home Ec Club; Tennessee Club; Music Club; Tennis Club.

We never know just what Louise will say. She is a constant surprise to even her most intimate friends. Let's call it "temperament." She is talented in music, and is especially fond of a certain "chubby" guy.

"Work, study, love, but the greatest of these is love."

SENIORS

CORNELIUS CANTRELL

White's Creek, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Tennessee Club; Preachers' Club.

Every person has a right to his own ideas and convictions. Cantrell believes so, anyway. He enjoys arguing, and will take the opposite side just for the sake of argument.

"I must argue, . . . what is, is not."

ROCHELLE EUBANKS

Bay Minette, Ala.

Tawassa Society; Alabama Club; Captain Basketball Team, '32; Workers' Club; Dramatic Club.

A better sport can never be found. "Concrete" has won her way into the hearts of all here. As Captain of the Basketball Team she could never be excelled, and she rightly deserves the honor of "Best Athlete." She leaves a vacancy hard to fill.

"Give me basketball or give me death."

NORMAN QUINCY WRIGHT

Vicksburg, Miss.

Estrellita Society; Basketball, '31, '32; President Tennis Club; Mississippi Club.

Our old married man, who succumbed to the wiles of a certain little blonde in High School. He has been a loyal and interested member of the Class of '32.

"I came, saw, and overcame."

JOHNNIE WOMACK MASON

McMinnville, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Tennessee Club; Home Ec Club; Workers' Club.

A more studious pupil would be hard to find. She has attained high scholarship, as well as the friendship of all who know her. As a waitress, a better could never be found. She is interested in Home Ec, and, believe me, she can really cook. Fellows, here's a girl for you.

"A kind and gentle heart has she to comfort friends and foes."

PRENTICE MEADOR

Portland, Tenn.

Tawassa; Vice President Junior Class, '31; Athletic Editor Backlog, '32; Workers' Club; Dramatic Club; Tennessee Club.

Prentice likes sunshine, oranges, palm trees, and everything that comes from Florida. He is seen most on the common courting ground with a certain brunette. He has dramatic talent, which when fully developed will make us proud to say we knew him.

"He hath not fed on the dainties that are bred in books."

ANNA CHRISMAN

Nashville, Tenn.

Tawassa; Tennessee Club; Day Student.

One of our most popular day students, and a very great mathematician. She greets every one with a smile and has a word of cheer for all.

"Anna is a solemn lass,
A good member of our class."

MILES REHORN

Nashville, Tenn.

Preachers' Club; Tennessee Club; Tawassa.

Miles is one of our young preachers, a good speaker, and very promising as an evangelist; an amiable fellow, sometimes happy and unconcerned, and oftentimes serious. Even with all his seriousness, he enjoys lighter moments with the opposite sex.

"I do profess to be no less than I seem."

GLADYS LOUISE EDWARDS

Cornersville, Tenn.

Tawassa; Tennessee Club; Dramatic Club; Home Ec Club; Basketball; Tennis Club.

A faithful student not only in books, but on the basketball court as well. Gladys is one of our most outstanding players, and she stood with the team until an accident brought her out. A more loyal, courageous person will be hard to find. She has made many friends, and we all love her.

"Persistence wins all things."

Miss Howell darling;
I'll never forget
how kind and sweet and patient you've been with me. If you come so much with my arm. I'll let back next year
I'll expect you
pop in every time
you start to love.
Remember me
as a true friend and come to see me. I love you,
Gladys.

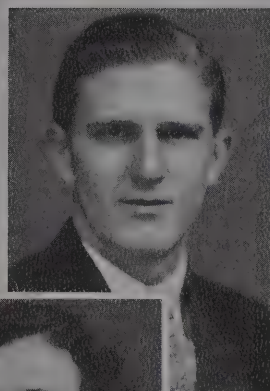

JAMES N. DARNELL

Morrison, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Tennessee Club; Basketball Team, '31, '32; Tennis Club; Baseball, '31, '32.

"Jim" likes baby talk, long curls, and brown eyes. He is the fastest man on the ball court, and I am sure he will make a good dentist. (Let's hope he will be painless.)

"And yet, believe me, good as was as ill, Woman's at best a contradiction still."

EDITH RIDDLE

Morrison, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Tennessee Club; French Club; Art Club.

Edith is very interested in art—in more ways than one. She enjoys painting as well as the art of courtship. She conducts herself at all times with maidenly graces.

"Quiet and sensible."

A. FREEMAN CROWDER

Nashville, Tenn.

Estrellita Society; Preachers' Club; Day Student; Dramatic Club; Tennessee Club; Commercial Club.

A conscientious preacher—one who is not afraid of hard work, but does everything with diligence. Freeman seems to have no time for females, but who knows for sure?

"I dare do all that becomes a man.
Who dares do more is none."

RUBY GRACE DANCER

Stantonville, Tenn.

Estrellita Society; Workers' Club, '31; Tennessee Club; Home Ec Club; Basketball, '32.

"Repeat" is one more fast person. She is like a streak of lightning on the ball court, and how she can ring those goals! She has been a great asset to the D. L. C. Team. And is she popular? Every other phone call is for "Ruby Dancer."

"She dwells in the realm of sport."

SENIORS

EDNA WATERS

Alachua, Fla.

Tawassa; Dramatic Club, '31; Cosmopolitan Club; Tennis Club; Home Ec Club.

"Tweet! Tweet!" Did I hear a bird singing in the Meador? Ah! it has a secret to unfold. No, not a secret, for every one here knows the lucky (or, should I say "unlucky"?) guy. Edna has a charming, unassuming personality, and carries her beauty honors as a lady should.

"She fills the air round with beauty."

WADDELL RALSTON

Nashville, Tenn.

Estrellita; Tennis Club; Tennessee Club.

Waddell is a grand timekeeper. The College girls could never have played the games they did if it had not been for such accuracy. A positive fellow and serious-minded, but one who enjoys playing tennis, especially when a little brunette appears on the court. Luck to you, Waddell!

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

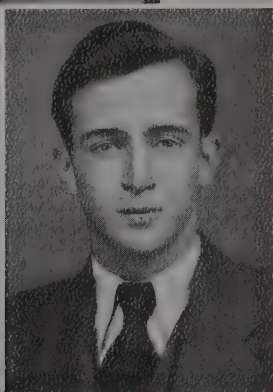

KATHLEEN DONOHO

Portland, Tenn.

Tawassa; Tennis Club; Tennessee Club; Home Ec Club.

A sweeter disposition just cannot be found in one girl. "Kat" has a modest personality, which has won for her many, many friends, and will continue to win them for her all through life.

"Upright and just in all she does."

EDGAR BUCKNER

Ragland, Ala.

Tawassa; Tennis Club; Alabama Club.

"Buck" likes people from Colorado, and especially blondes. He is notoriously neat and clean in his appearance and a real ladies' man. No wonder the little "Miss" fell so hard.

"And oh, he has that merry glance
That seldom ladies here resist."

SENIORS

KATHERINE JARRETT

Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Estrellita Society; Tennessee Club; Home Ec Club; Schubert Choral Club; Octette; Tennis Club.

This blonde hails from Murfreesboro. And can she play a piano? And sing? You just bet she can. She has a friendly inclination toward Mississippi.

"Music has charm, so has she."

WILLIAM HALL

Huntsville, Ala.

Tawassa Society; Alabama Club; Preachers' Club; Workers' Club; Glee Club; Tennis Club.

"Bill" is one of our distinguished orators, and he is splendid in dramatic work. His favorite song is "If I Could Be With You One Hour Tonight," and we think his heart is with some brunette.

"Absence makes the heart grow fonder."

MARGUERITE MONGOLD

White House, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Schubert Choral Club; Tennessee Club; Tennis Club.

Marguerite is rather conventional in her ideas, and has a wholesome awe for traditions and customs. She is a young lady so trained and equipped that if she happened to marry a man of wealth she would be socially at ease and capable of making her home a delightful place to visit. She is well fitted for a grand-opera singer, both in artistic talent and appearance.

"No one knows what she can do till she tries."

ELTON WOOD

Nashville, Tenn.

Tennessee Club; Day Student.

Elton is a person with a well-trained mind. He is honest and friendly. He has real talent for teaching, and I am sure he knows psychology well enough to understand human nature.

"Ambition has no rest."

EVELYN PARRISH

De Land, Fla.

Tawassa; Cosmopolitan Club; Art Club; Basketball, '32; Home Ec Club.

Can any good thing come out of Florida? At least, we think so. Here's a girl who gets out of life all the fun there is in it. She is a sweet girl, loyal, faithful, helpful, and kind—a friend indeed.

"Never too careless, nor too sad;
Never too studious, always glad."

EDWARD IVY HARPER

Chapel Hill, Tenn.

Tawassa; Workers' Club; Preachers' Club; Dramatic Club; Tennessee Club; Student Cabinet.

Ed is a boy of high moral standards, and is looked up to as one of the finest students in school. He is interested in keeping the high ideals of our school. We predict success for him wherever he goes.

"Men of few words are the best men."

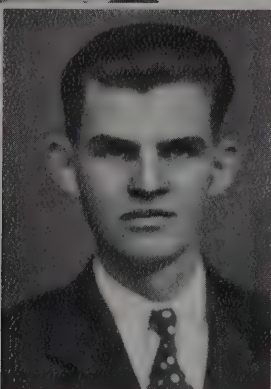

FRANCES MOORE

Nashville, Tenn.

Estrellita; Tennessee Club; French Club; Day Student.

A person who says very little, but goes her own way and interferes with no one. Frances has an air of dignity about her which makes you respect her. Many friends she leaves behind.

"To know her is to love her."

RALPH SNELL

Shelbyville, Tenn.

Estrellita; Tennessee Club; Preachers' Club; Workers' Club; Dramatic Club; Student Cabinet.

Ralph is a good, Christian character, courteous as well as helpful, and kind to his fellow men. He doesn't take everything as seriously as he gives the impression, and neither is he such a woman hater.

"He nothing common did or mean."

SENIORS

RUBY LEIGH SULLIVAN

Russellville, Ala.

Tawassa Society; Alabama Club; Art Club; Home Ec Club; Schubert Choral Club; Basketball, '31. '32; Dramatic Club; Workers' Club.

Ruby is a happy-go-lucky girl who believes in a good time and always gets one. She is fond of the frigidaire, and especially its contents. We are sure that the team next year will miss the delay caused by Ruby's habitual tardiness.

"Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow you may die."

A. KERMIT BLACK

Vicksburg, Miss.

Tawassa Society; Treasurer Tennis Club; Glee Club, '32; Schubert Choral Club.

A Mississippian? Yes, and a full-blooded one, at that. His pep speeches are very famous, and there is a promise of another Daniel Webster.

"Where ignorance is bliss,
'Tis folly to be wise."

GARNETTE WHITESIDE

Tompkinsville, Ky.

Estrellita Society; Kentucky Club; Tennis Club.

A quiet, refined, dignified girl, so reserved about her own affairs that not many people know her intimately; but there are, and always will be, many who admire and respect her.

"Quiet, demure, and sweet."

PRESTON COX

Richard City, Tenn.

Zenith Society; President Art Club; Workers' Club; Preachers' Club.

Preston is a fellow who never interferes in other people's affairs. He is quiet, but goes about doing his share in all things and helping where there is need. He is an outstanding student in the Senior High School Class.

"Deeds, not words."

SENIORS

MARIE ALICE MAYTON

Russellville, Ky.

Estrellita; Schubert Choral; Workers' Club; Kentucky Club; French Club.

After many of our experiences here at D. L. C. have passed into oblivion, we will remember the sincerity and general character of Marie.

"Being gifted with a tongue, I use it."

ELNORA DAVIS

Sparta, Tenn.

Estrellita; Tennessee Club; French Club; Home Ec Club.

We believe that Elnora's heart is as pure and sweet as her surroundings. She is sweet-voiced and kind, and as a chaperone you can "count on" her any time.

"Her air, her manners, all who saw admired; Courteous, though coy, and gentle, though retired."

OLGA MARRAINE JERNIGHAN

Tupelo, Miss.

Estrellita Society; Mississippi Club; Home Ec Club; Schubert Choral Club; College Cheer Leader, '32; Tennis Club.

Olga is a stanch and faithful friend. She is brimming over with fun and good spirits, and this combination of a sunny disposition and general friendliness makes her very popular.

"Life is short, and so am I."

LOUISE WINNETT

Hillsboro, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Tennessee Club; Schubert Choral Club; Workers' Club.

Louise is a quiet girl who does not talk much. But no wonder—she doesn't have a chance, for her roommate does all the talking for her.

"Kindness makes one friends."

SENIORS

ALVIN HOBBY

Lewisburg, Tenn.

Tawassa; Preachers' Club; Workers' Club; Glee Club; French Club; Tennessee Club.

A mathematical genius with a gentle, loving disposition and an ambitious personality. She is observant and accurate and willing to work for what she wins.

"Modest, unassuming, and industrious."

WILLIAM CROUCH

Ennis, Texas

Estrellita; Glee Club; Schubert Choral Club; Workers' Club; Preachers' Club.

Here's a bass singer for you. Bill's melodious voice could be heard as he went about his work or from class to class, and he was a good electrician too.

"I toil not, neither do I spin, yet I get by."

VESTA MAI HUTSON

Flat Creek, Tenn.

Estrellita; Workers' Club; Tennessee Club.

We do not hear her say much, but that's a sign she thinks lots. She is kind and ready to help a friend at any time.

"Slow, but sure."

PAULA WHITE
Martin, Tenn.

Estrellita Society; Home Ec Club; Tennessee Club; French Club; Workers' Club; Tennis Club; Art Club.

Paula's extremely amiable nature and willingness ever to do a kind deed for a friend has won for her a host of friends. She radiates sunshine and good cheer, and is another one of the "Gentlemen-Prefer-Blondes" type.

"A friend well worth having."

LA RUE MOORE
Winfield, Ala.

Tawassa Society; Workers' Club; Schubert Choral Club; Home Ec Club; Alabama Club; Tennis Club. '32.

La Rue is interested in Home Ec, and she has allowed some of the gentlemen to sample her cooking. We can understand now why a certain brunette is getting fat. Well, La Rue, you know the nearest way to a man's heart is through his stomach.

"None but the brave deserves the fair."

MABEL LOUISE HACKWORTH
Stevenson, Ala.

Tawassa Society; Alabama Club; Tennis Club.

A girl who does not talk much; but when she does, it is always of value, helpful and inspiring us to do our best. A noble, Christian character who keeps in mind and heart the ideals of the College, and lives them as well.

"She lives to live, not to boast."

RUTH THOMPSON
Nashville, Tenn.

Estrellita Society; Tennessee Club; Tennis Club; Home Ec Club; French Club; Dramatic Club.

Ruth is not at all sure whether her head or her heart rules. And, indeed, no one else knows which is in command at the present time. She is very much interested in the Babbler, and especially in the Editor. We wonder why she goes home so often.

"I will possess the goal, or die."

Dear Miss Howell,
I have enjoyed
knowing you much. I appreciate all that you have done for me.
I wish you
a full recovery and no more trouble. I wish you always to be as well as you are.
I am,
Yours truly,
K. M. Smith.

LOUISE McCOWAN

"The good stars met in your horoscope."

ETHEL CROWDER

Nashville, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Tennessee Club; Day Student.

You would never know Ethel was here if you didn't see her. She is a quiet, solemn, and bashful Miss, but attends to her affairs in her own quiet way.

"Silence is the most perfect herald of joy."

JAMES HOWARD KEY

Jackson, Tenn.

Tawassa Society; Dramatic Club; Tennessee Club; Tennis Club; Glee Club.

Howard believes size gets you by, and not study. He will do a deed for his friends at any time. He reminds us of our mischievous days.

"And he was slow and unconcerned—
He went to class and sometimes learned."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

(Probated, 1932)

We, the Senior Class of 1932 of David Lipscomb College, being about to pass out of this sphere of education with so little of this world's material goods, yet in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memories, and almost superhuman understanding, do hereby make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills or promises heretofore made by us at any time or mayhap carelessly spoken as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

We make our bequests as follows:

First: To our dear Faculty, who through two long years have patiently striven to instruct us in all the wisdom of the ages, we bequeath our sincere affection, our heartiest gratitude, and our deep appreciation.

Second: We bequeath to our beloved President, Brother Boles, the profound admiration and ever-enduring friendship of the Class of 1932 in individual as well as collective manifestations.

Third: To our beloved Junior friends we give the following advice: Follow the Senior Class of '32. Learn to work, if not to win. Development comes sooner through bearing failures than successes. It isn't fun. But still look at us Seniors. Ye cannot fail. It is our earnest desire that you hold high the ideals of the Institution. Surely you'll not betray the trust we've put in you.

Blessed be he who does fulfill,
But cursed be he who breaks this will.

Because of the "individualisitisity" of several students, they desire to make distribution of their possessions as follows:

La Rue Moore leaves her meek, modest, and captivating manners to Ruth Cunningham, knowing full well that they will be guarded and used with discretion.

Cecil Dumbrigue bequeaths his ability to bang the keys of a xylophone to Leonard Shore.

Bobbie King wills her sweet disposition and her art of keeping a steady beau to Evelyn Hackworth. Her ability as an actress she leaves to Mattie Pettus.

Robert Peyton Alsup bequeaths his superabundance of popularity, his basketball abilities, and his love affairs to Harold McCaffrey.

Martha Starnes wills her ability to make A's to Edrie Hill. Her tall stature she very graciously leaves to Christine Philips.

H. Waddell Ralston bequeaths his ability to write notes in history class to Marie Crabtree, who needs it so badly.

Paula White kindly leaves her sarcastic speech, her sunny smile, and clever ways to Rush Netterville.

Cornelius Cantrell very grudgingly leaves his foolosophy of the shape of the earth to George Binkley.

Louise McCowan wills her ability to ask questions to Floyd Hamilton. Her art of eating popcorn she leaves to Evelyn Wright.

Howard White bequeaths his presidentship to the most worthy one in the Class of '33. His large amount of conceit, his ability to gossip, and his beauty, to Jimmie Trice. To John Rucker he very kindly leaves his love of billing and cooing to the "girl" incessantly.

Hugh Allen bequeaths his position as Editor of the Backlog and his ability to captivate blonde ladies to Jack Carter.

I, the writer of this document will that no person shall take offense for anything written herein, but that only the choicest gifts shall be yours through life.

In witness whereof, I have set my hand and affixed my seal, this thirtieth day of May, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

HOMER REEVES, Testator.

ONWARD AND UPWARD

The great world stretches out before us.
Crossed by airplane, steamer, auto, and bus,
It is ours to travel and explore
Its beauties and its wonders more and more.

In the distance there is a goal ahead—
We're sure to reach it if by God we're led.
Truth as our motto, love as our creed,
Always kind and helpful to those in need.

Stern in our purpose, high in our aim,
Steadfast with hope, righteous in our claim,
To be clean and sincere, even in mirth,
Courageous and true—that's what we are worth.

Life's portal door is standing ajar—
We shall soon disperse and journey afar.
At the end of a hard but golden road
There's happiness and relief from each load.

MARIE ROBERTA KING.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

MARTHA STARNES

Not long ago, upon observing a notice of the 1949 commencement exercises of D. L. C., a flood of half-forgotten memories rushed over me. With an amused smile, I pictured to myself the Senior Class of 1932 as they strolled over the campus, worrying over their studies, projects, dates, etc., all the time having in mind the day they would prance across the stage to receive, with eager hands, their hard-earned diplomas. An overwhelming desire to learn of their destinies immediately seized my mind, and I determined to enlighten myself in this way. The thought occurred to me that probably I might come in contact with some of them over the radio. Accordingly, that same evening, I sat down before the radio and tuned in on the following stations:

Station WREC, Memphis, Tennessee.

I heard some one preaching. The voice sounded familiar. At the end the announcer stated that Brother Howard White had just delivered a sermon on "Courtship and Marriage." How good it was to hear Howard's voice once more! The song leader announced the next song. Could it be possible that it was Klingman Prentice singing "Hold Thou My Hand"? But, really, it was. Brother White was heard again: "Let us bow our heads while Brother Alvin Hobby leads us in a word of prayer."

Imagine! Howard, our President, now the leading minister in the Union Avenue Church at Memphis; Klingman, our D. L. C. songbird, now traveling with Howard; and Alvin an active church worker at Cornersville, Tenn.

Station WTAM, Cleveland, Ohio.

Music! Singing!

I listened attentively to the announcer: "The first selection will be 'Sunny Tennessee,' with Miss Katherine Jarrett at piano and Mr. Cecil Dumbrigue, who has just returned to America from the Philippines, soloing on the violin. Next a solo, 'If I Could Be With You One Hour Tonight,' rendered by Mr. Hugh Allen, Director of Reisman's Orchestra. Mr. Allen desires to dedicate this song to a little blonde back in Nashville, Tenn. Mr. Allen is accompanied by Miss Louise Jones, a late arrival from Hollywood."

Station WSM, Nashville, Tennessee.

Famous lecturers visiting from European cities.

First Lecture: "The Evil of Cosmetics," by Mlle. Rosalie Stubblefield.

Second Lecture: "The Psychology of Wearing Bobbed Hair Straight," by Mlle. Sue Williams.

Third Lecture: "How to Eat Plenty and Still Be Thin," by the charming Miss Ruby Sullivan.

Fourth Lecture: "How to Treat a Jilted Lover," by Mlle. Mabel Hackworth.

Station NACL, Possumtrot, Arkansas.

I heard a great clamor. The announcer spoke: "The newly erected chemical plant at Possumtrot, Arkansas, has just now been destroyed by fire, caused from an explosion. The plant is owned and operated by Dr. H. P. Reeves, B.S., M.A., and Ph.D. The loss is estimated at one hundred million dollars. Several were killed and others wounded."

Horrors! Could it be possible that Homer was among the killed or wounded? But listen: "Doctor Reeves was not present at the time of the explosion. He was in New York giving stump speeches for Senator Arthur Gardner. Mr. Gardner is on ballot for reelection for United States Senator from New York."

Static!!!

Station KOC, Denver, Colorado.

I heard the sound of sweet voices. Some one was singing softly, and then I knew it was a program from a hospital in the Middle West.

"The hospital is supported by the Federal Government, and made possible through the work of a great social welfare club, among whose members are Messrs. Cornelius Cantrell, Freeman Crowder, Preston Bray, and Elton Wood. The nurses in the hospital are Garnette Whiteside, Louise Winnett, Frances Moore, and Frances Burton."

It must be a manless hospital!

I heard that Misses La Rue Moore and Mary Key are surgeons.

"The group at the time of the program is in conference in the executive office of Miss Ruby Dancer. Kernit Black and Howard Key, newspaper reporters, are there, also. Milk is supplied the hospital from the 'Right Dairy Supply Company,' owned and operated by Mr. Norman Wright, Vicksburg, Miss."

Station WOAI, Dallas, Texas.

An entertainment was being given in the American Charm School. President Peyton Alsop, B.S., M.A., was directing the program. He was assisted by his able faculty:

Miss Evelyn Parrish, physical director.

Miss Marie Mayton, teacher of maidenly reserve.

Mr. Edward Harper, professor of literature.

Miss Ethel Crowder, teacher of the art of innocent flirting.

Miss Dot Jernighan, teacher of the art of vamping.

Mr. Irvin Lee, teacher of the art of conversation.

Mr. Joe McGregor, teacher of the art of being popular.

Station LOVE, McMinnville, Tennessee.

I heard the strains of the Mendelssohn Wedding March being played softly.

The announcer spoke: "To the radio audience, I wish to announce at this time that two former D. L. C. students are now being united in holy bonds of matrimony."

The voice is none other than that of Brother H. Leo Boles. How could I keep from recognizing it?

He spoke again: "The bride is Miss Edith Riddle, and the groom is Dr. James Darnell. Miss Riddle is a graduate of the University of Tennessee. She was very popular among the students, being a member of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority. Dr. Darnell, a graduate from U. T. Medical School, is a specialist on Mumps. The bride is attended by Miss Edna Waters, and the groom by Mr. Prentice Meador, former students of D. L. C., and now students in Cumberland University." Well, I thought Edna and Prentice would be the first of our bunch to die, but now I see it is Edith and Jim. "The bridesmaids are Misses Blanche Taylor, Ruth Thompson, Olga Jernighan, and Margaret Anderson, all special friends of Miss Riddle. These ladies are now enrolled at Vanderbilt. Miss Taylor is taking kindergarten work; Miss Thompson, voice; and Misses Jernighan and Anderson, nursing."

SENIORS

Just at this time another station came on, and I heard nothing but static. Such luck!

Station WAPI, Birmingham, Alabama.

Editors of famous newspapers were speaking.

Editor Lee J. Watkins spoke first. His paper, "Originality," would contain many unheard-of ideas he so often expresses, including picking up stars by the bucketfuls.

His co-editor was Miss Anna Chrisman, from Pigeon, Indiana.

Editor Edgar Buckner spoke next. His paper, "Can't You? Won't You? Don't You?" was becoming very famous.

Miss Elnora Davis, his co-editor, proved to be a great assistant. She gave special attention to the children's page.

Station WOBT, Podunk, Arizona.

I tuned in in order to hear special rates on permanents. Managers of the beauty parlor "Spare No One" were Misses Gladys Edwards and Kathleen Donoho.

On the same street with the beauty parlor another establishment has been erected. This was a "P-Nut-Popcorn Stand," owned and operated by Mr. Austin Tant. Mr. Tant pushes the wagon while Mr. William Hall sells the popcorn. "Get 'em while they're hot."

Station KMOX, St. Louis, Missouri.

A play was being presented by actresses from New York.

"The subject is 'A Tale of Two.' Principal characters are Misses Nell Grandstaff and Marie King. These young ladies, after completing their courses at Harvard, went to New York and took special training from Miss Ora Crabtree, director in dramatic arts. They are very talented in this work, and the play is a glorious success."

I could see them as the same Nell and Bobbie who made student life happier at D. L. C. by their presence.

Station WEA, New York, New York.

The announcer was giving notices of new business offices which were being erected.

First: "On Fifth Avenue one is attracted by a sign which reads, 'We Can Decrease Your Height—Tall People, Do Not Despair.' Managers, Messrs. Ralph Snell and Earl Smith."

Second: "On corner of Quality and Caldwell the 'Little Canary Cottage' awaits you. Misses Louise McCowan and Johnnie Mason are managers of this cottage. Miss Mason, besides serving you delicious meals, is able to give useful information on phases of nutrition. Miss McCowan is supervisor of the cottage, but has offered her resignation, as she will soon leave on a trip to Venice, Italy."

Static!

I was left to my thoughts, but I just wondered if Louise wasn't leaving with some one else to keep her company.

SENIORS

Station WTJS, Jackson, Tennessee (Hooked up with Columbia Network).

I heard only snatches of programs. One comes from Jacksonville, Florida. "The University of the Frozen North" was being entertained by Miss Paula White, who had become head "trigonometry" teacher.

Another—I heard a program. Mr. Waddell Ralston was starring in "A Hopeless Love Affair," at Moffatt, California.

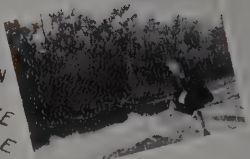

Again—I heard a ball game being announced, the Leans vs. the Fats—an independent team at Louisville, Kentucky. Miss Rochelle Eubanks starred in the game. She won the aluminum cup which was offered to the one playing the best game.

Station XYZ, Crockett, Wyoming.

It was growing late, but I tuned in once more and heard Miss Vesta Mai Hutson, famous lecturer from Bells, New Jersey, delivering a heated lecture on "Wild, Wild Women." She was making a campaign against bobbed hair.

My head was in a whirl. It all seemed too good to be true. Just about every member of the Class of '32, I reflected, as I fell asleep, had been accounted for.

FOUNDER'S DAY ORATORS

On January 21 was held our annual oratorical contest. This is an event always looked forward to from year to year. It is held on or as near to this date as possible every year in honor of Brother David Lipscomb's birthday. This year we heard six very fine speeches. The medal, which is customarily awarded the orator who delivers the best oration, went to Homer Reeves.

THE SUPERINTENDENT OF ELAM HALL AND HIS CABINET

The Cabinet is composed of college men selected by the Superintendent of Elam Hall to assist him in his duties relating to the general conduct of students under his supervision. Each young man is selected because of his peculiar fitness for such duties. Further qualifications are fair scholarship, loyalty to the school, and Christian character. Every member is expected to live a life worthy of emulation. The Cabinet meets with the Superintendent each week to discuss problems relating to the welfare of those under his care. It has no power to make regulations nor to inflict penalties. It functions in an advisory capacity, making suggestions to those who do not comply with the regulations and reporting to the Superintendent those who fail to heed the suggestions. To be a member of the Cabinet is one of the highest honors bestowed upon any student in Elam Hall.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Success cannot be attained in a single bound, but by many persistent trials. This was the first year for the High School girls, and a championship team was not expected. The girls showed a never-dying spirit, and are to be commended for the courageous fight they put up. Graduation will take only two members of the team away from us; and with the experience of the old members left, strengthened with new material, the Lipscomb lassies should sail smoothly to the city crown. So we are predicting a great season next year.

Coach Boles labored and toiled with raw material, and she deserves a lot of credit for her ability and untiring efforts. Coach leaves us this year. We recognize her fine qualities, and wish for her much success in future years.

COLLEGE GIRLS' TEAM

Boys are not all that have a part in athletics at Lipscomb; the girls have a part, and they play it. The college girls were off for a slow start, but it was just too bad when they did get started. The girls worked hard, and their results were only what you expect of work—success. The girls turned in victories from Cumberland University, DuPont, B. T. I., Watkins, and other major teams of the city.

There was no one-man stuff on this team. The girls played for each other and the school, and not themselves. The work of Eubanks at center, with the aid of Grandstaff, was excellent; then come the guards who performed to perfection—Parrish, Key, Pylant, and Edwards. Miss Edwards was absent from the hardwood the latter half of the season on account of an injury received during a game, and was absent when the picture was taken. The forwards who hit the old basket consistently are Dancer, White, and Sheetz. Graduation will hit this team hard. Those finishing are Eubanks, Parrish, Grandstaff, Edwards, and Key. We are hoping for some new recruits to build around those left that the standard might be upheld.

Lipscomb collected a total of 657 points against their opponents' 608. Eubanks was high scorer for the team. The school appreciates the work of Coach Finn, realizing that he did a great work in rounding out his team.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

Again this year the H. S. picked the "cream of the crop" of H. S. circles, but this year the "cream" was much thicker than usual. The team of last year returned in full strength, with the exception of three (3) men who graduated. But the new recruits filled the vacancies, and the "Preachers" were off for a season of glory. The team started in a run and closed the season in a gallop when they defeated Peabody in the district tournament. The "Preachers" were doped to win the district tournament, but "Ole Man Jinx" took a hand and the "Preachers" were defeated by a strong team from Central Hi. But, looking at everything, we will have to say that many "laurels" go to the boys for their sportsmanship and splendid performances.

The team was made up of men who knew their basketball and who had what it takes for a clean basketball game—the nerve and the "ole eye" for the basket. W. Graves, the little forward with fast feet and a sure shot, galloped away with a berth on the all-city team, which he deserved. He also had a brother, J. Graves, who stood under the opponents' goal like a stone wall. He and Lancaster were the "invincible twins." Then comes the man with "it" (lookout, girls!)—none other than ole reliable Watkins. He pulled D. L. H. S. to many victories by that shot with which every high school in the district is acquainted, to their sorrow. There are other able reserves who cooperated and backed up the team—namely, Blankenship, Holt, Gregory, Cayce, Henn, C. Graves.

The results of the season were something to be proud of. The team hung up victories over Hume-Fogg, DuPont, Peabody, Cumberland, and numerous others. The total points for Lipscomb were 853, with 681 for their opponents. The high-scoring honors go to Watkins with 314 points, with W. Graves next with 215 points.

This year was a banner year for Coach Boles. He gave his best, and his reward should have been the "city crown"; but better luck next time, "Coach."

COLLEGE BOYS' TEAM

The college boys were somewhat hampered at the first of the season on account of raw material. With only two men of the last year's varsity, Coach Boles whipped into shape a team that has met such teams as "Ideal Aces," "A. S. T. C.," "Vandy Frosh," "Cumberland U.," and came out victorious. The team performed in such a way the school is honored by its presence, and at times shots were made that would be credit to the "Celtics."

The team turned in a splendid record at the close of the season, with a total of 1,097 points for Lipscomb and 767 points for their opponents, losing eight games and winning twenty. Captain Alsup was the high scorer of the season with a total of 243 points, followed by Carter with 151 points.

The team loses only three letter men by graduation, but the loss will be great. Those leaving are Captain Alsup, Darnell, and Wright. This takes the "backbone" of the team; but with the return of other members of the team and the proper pilot at the wheel of D. L. C.'s ship of athletics, D. L. C. should have a great team and season next year.

A lot of the credit for this year's team goes to Coach Boles, under whose able instruction the "boys" made a great showing.

SCHOOL DAYS --

Courage, Great Plans, and Dauntless Dreams, linked with Ambition, are at our bidding when youth with its strength stands unconquered.

Yet—the turn in life's road may lead us far away from the goal of our youth, to the tragic haven of dependent old age. You can take a chance at 20—but not at 65.

Income Insurance can safeguard your future while providing protection for those who may be dependent on you.
